Internet Mathematics publishes research papers that address fundamental problems, conceptual, algorithmic, and empirical, that arise in dealing with large, real-world complex networks such as the web graph, the Internet, online social networks, and biological networks. Broad in scope, the journal will allow for flexible adjustment to the evolving needs that arise in real-life applications and the theoretical foundations.

Internet Mathematics (ISSN: 1542-7951) is published quarterly by Taylor & Francis Group, LLC, 325 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106.
